

The Sinclair Company's required airing of a political ad masquerading as "news" on its vast network of communications "holdings" is the strongest evidence thus far that the FCC should not allow such media giants to exist. Further, the FCC should step in right now and prevent this miscarriage of justice and attempt to influence a major election using the public airwaves. Beverley McDonald, 2345 Oxford Rd., #511, Berkley, Michigan 48072; 248/548-3049